PROFILE

As a student of Computer Science & Technology, I am deeply curious about the inner workings of the web and passionate about solving real-world problems & creating user-friendly and visually appealing websites. My journey began with mastering the fundamentals: HTML, CSS, and JavaScript. These languages allowed me to craft my first web pages, experiment with layouts. I dived into front-end frameworks such as React.js and Next.js, to build dynamic, responsive interfaces. MongoDB, with its flexible schema and scalability, caught my attention. I explored database design, learned to model data efficiently. I am excited to contribute my skills and collaborate with experienced professionals during an internship.
